Case No. CR 23-564 MWF – 01 - 06

BRADY DISCLOSURE ORDER

19 Under federal law, including Rule 5(f) of the Federal Rules of Criminal 20 Procedure, Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and all applicable decisions from 21 the Supreme Court and the Ninth Circuit interpreting Brady, the government has a 22 continuing obligation to produce all information or evidence known to the 23 government relating to guilt or punishment that might reasonably be considered 24 favorable to the defendant's case, even if the evidence is not admissible so long as it
25 is reasonably likely to lead to admissible evidence. See United States v. Price, 566 26 F.3d 900, 913 n.14 (9th Cir. 2009). Accordingly, the Court orders the government to 27 produce to the Defendant(s) in a timely manner all such information or evidence.

28 ///

1 Information or evidence may be favorable to a defendant's case if it either may 2 help bolster the defendant's case or impeach a prosecutor's witness or other 3 government evidence. If doubt exists, it should be resolved in favor of the 4 Defendant(s) with full disclosure being made.

5 If the government believes that a required disclosure would compromise
6 witness safety, victim rights, national security, a sensitive law-enforcement technique,
7 or any other substantial government interest, the government may apply to the Court 8 for a modification of the requirements of this Disclosure Order, which may include in 9 camera review and/or withholding or subjecting to a protective order all or part of the 10 information.

11 This Disclosure Order is entered under Rule 5(f) and does not relieve any party
12 in this matter of any other discovery obligation. The consequences for violating either 13 this Disclosure Order or the government's obligations under Brady include, but are 14 not limited to, the following: contempt, sanction, referral to disciplinary authority, 15 adverse jury instruction, exclusion of evidence, and dismissal of charges. Nothing in 16 this Disclosure Order enlarges or diminishes the government's obligation to disclose 17 information and evidence to a defendant under Brady, as interpreted and applied under 18 Supreme Court and Ninth Circuit precedent. As the Supreme Court noted, "the 19 government violates the Constitution's Due Process Clause 'if it withholds evidence 20 that is favorable to the defense and material to the defendant's guilt or punishment.'" Turner v. United States, 137 S. Ct. 1885, 1888 (2017), quoting Smith v. Cain, 565
21 U.S. 73, 75 (2012).
